DETAILED ACTION

Response to Remarks/Arguments

- In response to communications filed on 10/05/2007. The following claims, claims
 1-20, are presented for examination.
- 1.1 Applicant's arguments, pages 6-22, with respect to the rejection of claims 1-20 have been fully considered but they are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 17-20, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter - the claimed subject matter not being tangible. The claimed article of manufacture comprising a computer-readable medium and a means in the medium for utilizing claims hardware approach does not constitute statutory matter. It is unclear how the claimed invention can have a means in the medium for utilizing a hardware approach.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, because the term "approach" in claims 1-10 is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term "approach" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

The Examiner has assumed that the Applicant intended to recite a "method using software" and a "method using hardware" in place of the "software approach" and "hardware approach" used within the claims. This assumption definition was used in applying the reference of record. This rejection was argued in a previous response (04/11/2007) by the Applicant and the Examiner did not respond due to the application of new art, however the rejection is maintained in light of the arguments presented by the Applicant.

Claims 11-16 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention, because it does not make clear what is the end result if the execution og the code section is not successful.
